Said a prominent Republican on Main street last evening: "There is one man in Western Nevada for whom I have formed an unbounded respect. I have known him now for ten years, and always did admire his pluck, enterprise and energy. During a term of the State Legislature several years ago I was thrown in contact with him frequently and I noticed that he was always an untiring worker in bahalf of his constituents and town, and while thus engaged, he took to heart every set back he re-ceived as though the defeat was his own personally. But he never stayed down. He was made of better stuff; and right here let me say that, in my opinion, it is when a man rises in his power on such an occasion and proves himself equal to the emergency that the merit and metal in him shows itself. Profiting by his defeats he always went to work with renewed indominable zeal, they were unimportant. He ishes a Republican newspaper. and publishes and is getting a number of heavy raps. But what of that. They don't hurt him, because he knows he is right. With his usual conscientions determination he is supporting his party in and out of his paper. The cause of the attacks was the announcement several months ago of his intended advocacy of Home Rule for Nevada as regards the State's next Senator, and because he is sturdily adhering to this principle certain elements are throwing mud at him. But it is fast becoming evident that the mud throwers are getting the worst of the dirty assault Mark my word, he will come out on top, for the people are
